Overview

Anna is a family lawyer who specialises in advising on all financial issues that arise from the breakdown of relationships, particularly those involving high-net-worth individuals, whether in this country or abroad. She also deals with disputes involving children and, more specifically, advises on financial provision for children from both marital and non-marital relationships. In addition, she has extensive experience of pre-nuptial agreements, post-nuptial agreements, separation agreements, cohabitee disputes and agreements, and third-party intervener cases.

Throughout her career, Anna has advised many high-profile individuals in the media and entertainment industry as well as entrepreneurs and sports personalities.

You know how long and difficult it has been... I couldn't have managed without your professional help and extreme human kindness! Thank you so much.

Mrs. Z

Going through a divorce is never easy, especially when children are involved. Anna was a voice of calm and reason throughout the process and managed a rather challenging and complicated situation. While emotions were running high, Anna was always steady, which couldn't have been a better approach for me at the time

Ms. F

As a Private Client lawyer I have turned to Anna on a number of occasions for assistance in relation to matrimonial matters affecting clients. I have found Anna to be a friendly, energetic and knowledgeable adviser, sympathetic to the needs of her clients. She greatly reduced the stress for a client who was divorcing a difficult and abusive spouse. I will not hesitate to recommend Anna in the future.

Mr. D

I am very grateful that Anna was recommended to assist me with my pre-nuptial agreement. Anna established a trustworthy relationship very quickly and took the time to understand my situation and needs. She knew what my priorities were and always advised me wisely when required. I really felt that Anna was in control and knowledgeable, which gave me a real peace of mind. I can therefore strongly recommend Anna.

Ms. M

Anna was beyond professional and showed great empathy and sensitivity when handling my case. I had complete trust in her abilities and she fought tenaciously to get me the best possible outcome for myself and my children during my divorce proceedings. Not only is Anna an incredible solicitor but she is also a wonderful person and a pleasure to deal with. She was also very responsive and extremely efficient. I would have no hesitation in recommending her to other clients. Her knowledge and expertise combined with her warm personality and professionalism makes her nothing but first class. I cannot thank her enough for all she has done for me.
