Overview

Daisy is a highly experienced paralegal working in the Litigation team.

Prior to joining Keystone, Daisy gained experience in dispute resolution at leading London firms, assisting high-profile individuals and international corporate clients across a range of commercial law matters.

Daisy's litigation experience ranges from low-cost to multi-million-pound cases, including white collar crime, media, privacy and defamation proceedings. She is used to drafting correspondence, preparing trial documents and conducting legal research. Daisy has experience working internationally and uses her fluency in foreign languages to assist clients.
